

The Revenue Bureau oversees the non-tax revenue management activities of all Commonwealth agencies that are statutorily authorized to engage in the collection of non-tax revenue including: fees; fines; licenses; rents; and reimbursements. The bureau's major responsibility is to ensure departmental compliance with the Commonwealth's non-tax revenue management laws regulations, policies and processes. Specific responsibilities include educating and assisting departments to monitor revenue collection, revenue reconciliation and revenue reporting.

